

FREEDOM

And what it means to me

Key: 1 amendment:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

2 amendments: A well-regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.

3 amendments: No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner nor in time of war, but in manner to be prescribed by law.

Hello, my name is Eli. J. Lacoock, today I am going to tell you about what I think is FREEDOM. FREEDOM is what lets us go where we want to go be where we want to be own what we want to own do what we want to do personally I think that FREEDOM is what holds us together it's what holds the U.S. together.

The First Amendment, the right to free speech means that we can say what we want to say. The next thing I want to talk about is RIGHTS.

Rights are things we can do, and no butte can stop us like we can go where we want to go no butte can take our stuff right basically sum up the Constitution
