Scene 1

Jannit: Hello class, we are going to have a project. You must write a paper about the Constitution and its meaning.

Oliver: When is it due?

Jannit: next week.

Oliver: Ok.

Jannit: Class dismissed.

Scene 2

Tom: How was school?

Oliver: Ok.

Jim: I love school!!!!

Donna: Jim! Don't interrupt.

Anna: Do you have homework?

Oliver: No, well yes. We must write a paper on the Constitution and its meaning to us.

Archie: Did you say the Constitution?

Oliver: Yes.

Archie: My great g

Oliver: He did?

Agatha: Yes, he did.

Oliver: So can you help me with my project?

Archie: No, of course not!

Agatha: Archie, you are going to help my grandson! He is my favorite; I mean, I love all my grandchildren the same.

Archie: I was kidding; I will help you, Oliver.

Oliver: Thanks

Archie: The day was July 5, 1776; we won the Revolutionary War.

Oliver: Thanks, but that doesn't help.

Archie: What do you mean?

Oliver: Our paper is on the Constitution and its meaning to us.

Oliver: Like the constitution gives us rights and keeps the government in check so they can't take away our rights or freedoms.

Archie: That could be the base of your constitution paper.

Oliver: Realy?

Archie: yeah

Tom: Time for bed.

Oliver: ok

Scene 3

Jannit: Good morning, class.

Oliver: Good morning.

Jannit: How is the project coming?

Oliver: Good. Does it have to be a paper?

Jannit: No, it can be a small paragraph.

Oliver: Ok

Scene 4

Tom: How was school?

Oliver: Ok.

Jim: I love school!!!!

Donna: Jim! Don't interrupt.

Oliver: I am going to my room.

3 hours later

Tom: Time for bed.

Oliver: Ok.

Scene 5

Jannit: Good morning, class.

Oliver: Can I present?

Jannit: Ok.

Oliver: So what the constitution means to me is. It keeps the government from taking our rights and freedoms. It also keeps all three branches of government at the same amount of power.
